A SHOW OF SOLIDARITY

Kudos to the Jewish community of Greater Moncton!

About a month ago, at a meeting of the immigration committee, the growth of the community was discussed. We were glad that new families had arrived and the number of kids in our community had greatly increased, because that is a sign of growth and health.

All the members felt that it was important that these kids should be able to go to Camp Kadimah.

In order to achieve that goal, fund raising activities were started, including a spaghetti dinner and an art auction.

As a result, a grand total of 9000 dollars was gathered just in a few days.

Amazing! Now all the kids will be able to enjoy the summer at beautiful Camp Kadimah!

Thank you to many people but mainly to two ladies, Carole Rinzler and Anne Jochelman. You are amazing! Your heart is at the right place and your food is out of this world.

Thank you, Moncton community. You are a beautiful proof of solidarity for others.

THANK YOU JOHN F.

Someone has been doing a lot of things for our community and he has been doing it in the shadows.

It is about time that we give a heartfelt thank you to John Flanagan.

Thank you for coming and clearing the snow on the ramp a few weeks ago. Someone had mentioned that it might be used in the coming days. John came with his son and spent several hours clearing the huge amount of snow on the ramp and in front of the Shul.

The following week, the roof was leaking in the preschool. John came again and spend, again, many hours clearing the snow of the roof.

John has also done extensive work on the walls and floor of the kitchen, a big job, very much needed.

Thank you to all who have been helping the Shul.

Thank you John S., John F., Carole, Ivan, Morris, Ury, Alexander, Peter, Theodore.

A WORD FROM THE EDITOR

Very sorry, but there will not be many articles in this bulletin. After doing it for 14 years continuously, I guess I have grown a little bit tired.

Many times I have asked for articles or news events. I very seldom receive any.

Anyway, I have decided that for this bulletin, I will do the minimum. Just the schedule for Pesach, the list of yearzeits, thanking people who have served the community well and that's it!

The board is very pleased to announce that a significant donation to the synagogue is in the process of being made by one congregant.

More details will be made known later.

Our community is small, we mainly have to rely on ourselves to survive. This generous gesture is much appreciated.
