

Tisha be'Av is coming soon. It will take place Shabbat next week.

Rabbi Yagod has organised a special event for that day:

August 5-6 we will be honored with the visit of prominent Judge, legal expert and an influential rabbinic figure in Israel, London and North America.

Judge Ofer Livnat is coming from Boston where he supervises the training of Jewish Judges for North America.

Judge Ofer will be a guest of Rabbi Yagod and our community for Shabbat Chazon, August 6th and he will deliver an important speech right after services in our Shul, at approximately 11:30 am.

Please do make every effort to attend this educational event.

Service that Shabbat will start at 9:00 am.

The Torah will be taken out around 9:45 am.

Bio:

Rabbi Ofer Livnat serves as a Dayan on the Sephardi Beth of London.

A graduate of the Eretz Hemdah Institute for Advanced Jewish Studies in Jerusalem, Rabbi Livnat teaches in a number of programs for training rabbis and Dayanim, including the Smicha and Dayanut Programs run jointly by the Montefiore Endowment of London and Eretz Hemdah.

A lecturer on Tanach at the Jerusalem College as well, Rabbi Livnat has previously served in an artillery unit in the IDF and is currently studying for a PhD in Jewish studies at University College London.
